2. Why are we interested in your data and for what purpose are we allowed to process them?

- 2.1. We process your data in connection with various meetings, events and conferences (“event”), provided you participate voluntarily in such events and register for them at the respective contact point. Data processing is performed within the framework of the implementation of (pre-) contractual measures pursuant to Art.6, para.1, point b of the GDPR in order to (i) organize the event and (ii) contact you, if necessary, in connection with the event you have chosen to participate in (e.g. in case of cancellation, change of date or change of the venue of the event). If you do not indicate your data, we are unable to register you for the event of your choice.
- 2.2. Images of the participants may be captured on video recordings and photographs within the framework of the event. We use such recordings and photographs on the basis of our legitimate interests pursuant to Art.6, para.1, point f of the GDPR for (i) the documentation of the event and (ii) external and internal reporting about the event, including through postings on our websites, social media channels or on the Intranet.
- 2.3. If the use of images is not based on our legitimate interests, we will specifically ask you for your consent to processing pursuant to Art.6, para.1, point a of the GDPR.
- 2.4. Before processing your data for purposes other than those specified in this document, we will notify you separately of our intention to do so.

3. Who will your data be shared with and from whom do we receive them?

- 3.1. To the extent required, we transmit your registration data to an external organizer and, if necessary, other third parties supporting us in the organization of the event in order to ensure a smooth conduct of the event.
- 3.2. We comply with all legal and contractual obligations. To this end, we cooperate with external service providers (processors) and transmit your personal data to them to the extent required for service provision. Our processors include, in particular, IT service providers:
 - Software and service providers (provision of IT applications) for email services and administrative activities;
 - Computing centres, IT operation and hosting;
 - Scan and print service providers;
 - Security service providers within the framework of the protection of physical safety and data security;
 - IT service providers and IT support for the purpose of project management, the definition of requirements, the introduction, adaptation and development of software, as well as the servicing and maintenance of IT systems and the performance of regular IT activities (hotline, trouble shooting, servicing of interfaces).
- 3.3. Certain legal obligations can only be met by us if we transmit your personal data to public authorities or courts, as required.

4. How long will your data be stored?

- 4.1. Your personal data will be deleted as soon as they are no longer required for the aforementioned purposes, unless storage for a longer period of time is prescribed by law.

5. What are your rights?

You have a right to information, rectification, erasure or restriction of processing of your data, as well as a right to object to processing and a right to data portability pursuant to the provisions of data protection law (see Art.15 seq. GDPR). If you are of the opinion that in processing your data we are violating the legal data protection provisions, please contact us so that we can clarify the matter.

You can also address your complaints to the competent data protection authority:
